Career Summary

Mr. Smyslowski is a Senior Managing Director in HFF's San Francisco office. He was a co-founder of the location when HFF San Francisco officially opened its doors in 2006. He has more than 20 years of experience in commercial real estate finance and is primarily responsible for the origination and placement of both debt and equity transactions for all property types throughout the western United States. During his career, he has completed more than $6 billion in commercial real estate transactions. He has extensive background in complex structured financing transactions.

Mr. Smyslowski joined HFF in December 2003 as a Director in the firm's Los Angeles office, and later relocated to San Francisco in 2006. Prior to HFF, he was a Vice President at George Smith Partners, where he was responsible for new originations, loan placement and closings. He also held a number of senior management positions in the hotel and restaurant industry prior to his start in the mortgage banking field, most notably with the San Francisco based Kimpton Group.
